

What is a Cajita de Muertos?

Also known as Day of the Dead skeleton dioramas or shadow boxes, they are three-dimensional or recessed display boxes. Used for fun to celebrate Day of the Dead, they honor a combination of both people and objects in popular culture. Another form of these shadow boxes are called Nichos, these are used as a portable shrine to important figures of a loved one.

mehwork.com // insta: @meh.work

mehwork.com // insta: @meh.work

Decorate your own Cajita de Muertos!

1. Cut out box template and Skeleton Friends!
2. Color or Decorate Box (back and front) and Skeletons
3. Cut out the Dotted lines and shapes
4. Fold box, insert Skeletons, and secure with Double Sided Tape or Glue (Pattern should be on the inside)

mehwork.com // insta: @meh.work